Epistle Reading

St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 16:13-24

BRETHREN, be watchful, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. Now, brethren, you know that the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints; I urge you to be subject to such men and to every fellow worker and laborer. I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicos, because they have made up for your absence; for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. Give recognition to such men. The churches of Asia send greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord. All the brethren send greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss. I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 21:33-42 13th Sunday of Matthew

The Lord said this parable, "There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country. When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to get his fruit; and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them. Afterward he sent his son to them, saying 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.' And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.

When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons." Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: the very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner; this was the Lord's doing, and it was marvelous in our eyes?"

Resurrectional Apolytikion Fourth Tone

The women disciples of the Lord heard from the angel, the joyful news of the Resurrection and the repeal of the sentence imposed upon our forefathers. With pride they said to the Apostles, "Death is vanquished, Christ our God is risen bestowing upon the world His great mercy."

Church Apolytikion

The incarnate Angel and the Prophets' summit and boast, the second fore-runner of the coming of Christ, Elias, the glorious, from above he has sent down his grace upon Elisha; he doth cast out sickness and also doth cleanse the lepers; and unto all that honor him, streams of cures he poureth forth.

Kontakion

In your holy birth, Immaculate One, Joachim and Anna were rid of the shame of childlessness; Adam and Eve of the corruption of death. And so your people, free of the guilt of their sins, celebrate crying: "The barren one gives birth to the Theotokos, who nourishes our life."

New Mexico and Southwest Premiere of Greek Movie, "Without Borders"

On Friday, October 5th, at the New Mexico History Museum Auditorium, the Santa Fe Film Festival in collaboration with the New Mexico Film Office and Plaza Cafe Southside restaurant will present a special Southwest premiere of production, Without Borders screening will be with the filmmakers "mixer" complete Mexican appetizers wine and beer. Based Without Borders was Mexico as well as in The movie offers a humanistic, nonpolitical and outside (i.e., Greek) perspective on the US/Mexican border issue and adds value as a unique cultural education opportunity for the State. Since space is limited, tickets (only $30 each) are being sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Tickets may be purchased at the Plaza Cafe Southside or at Constellation Home Electronics in Santa Fe.

screening and the Greek movie Borders. The followed by a Q&A & cast, as well as a with Greek and and drinks, including on true events, filmed partly in New Athens and Chicago.

takes her child away from Thanasis and leaves. Thanasis, suddenly alone, misses the child who was like a daughter to him and a comfort in his old age. Thanasis decides to travel to America in the hope of seeing her again. He does not have a visa. He does not speak English. He does not have much money. He does not know how to drive a car, and he has never been on an airplane. But he does have a distant cousin, Plato, a professional gambler, living in Las Vegas, who has offered to help him cross the border. Thanasis never suspects that Plato might have a scheme of his own. A road movie begins as the two disparate cousins from Greece embark on a cross-country adventure to win the smile of a little girl..." The cast includes Yiorgo Yoyagis, a famous actor in Greece, who plays the lead character "Thanasis." As a young man, Yoyagis played a defining role in the classic movie Zorba the Greek (he was the young man who committed suicide in the film leading his father to take revenge on the attractive widow character played by Irene Papas). Other actors in Without Borders include Academy Award nominee Seymour Cassel.
