Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians 2:16-20

BRETHREN, you know that a man is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of the law, because by works of the law shall no one be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were found to be sinners, is Christ then an agent of sin? Certainly not! But if I build up again those things which I tore down, then I prove myself a transgressor. For I through the law died to the law, that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Gospel Reading

Mark 8:34-38; 9:1 Sunday after Holy Cross

The Lord said: "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? For what can a man give in return for his life? For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of man also be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels." And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power."

APOLYTIKION OF THE RESURRECTION, PLAGAL OF SECOND TONE

Angelic powers were above Thy tomb and they that guarded Thee became as dead. And Mary stood by the grave seeking Thine immaculate Body. Thou hast despoiled Hades and wast not tried thereby. Thou didst meet the Virgin and didst grant us life. O Thou Who didst arise from the dead, Lord, glory be to Thee.

APOLYTIKION OF THE HOLY CROSS, FIRST TONE

Save, O Lord, Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; grant Thou unto the faithful victory over adversaries. And by the power of Thy Cross do Thou preserve Thy commonwealth.

CHURCH APOLYTIKION

The incarnate Angel and the Prophets' summit and boast, the second fore-runner of the coming of Christ, Elias, the glorious, from above he has sent down his grace upon Elisha; he doth cast out sickness and also doth cleanse the lepers; and unto all that honor him, streams of cures he poureth forth.

KONTAKION, FOURTH TONE

Thou Who wast raised up on the Cross of Thine own will, O Christ our God, do Thou bestow Thy compassions upon this, Thy new commonwealth named after Thee. Gladden with Thy sovereign might our most Orthodox hierarchs, and vouchsafe them victory over every false teaching; and as Thy help in war may they possess the weapon of peace, the trophy invincible.

New Mexico and Southwest Premiere of Greek Movie, "Without Borders"

On Friday, October 5th, at the New Mexico History Museum Auditorium, the Santa Fe Film Festival in collaboration with the New Mexico Film Office and Plaza Cafe Southside restaurant will present a special Southwest premiere of production, Without Borders screening will be with the filmmakers "mixer" complete Mexican appetizers wine and beer. Based Without Borders was Mexico as well as in The movie offers a humanistic, nonpolitical and outside (i.e., Greek) perspective on the US/Mexican border issue and adds value as a unique cultural education opportunity for the State. Since space is limited, tickets (only $30 each) are being sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Tickets may be purchased at the Plaza Cafe Southside or at Constellation Home Electronics in Santa Fe.

screening and the Greek movie Borders. The followed by a Q&A & cast, as well as a with Greek and and drinks, including on true events, filmed partly in New Athens and Chicago.

"Thanasis, a good-hearted cotton candy vendor from Athens, has been caring for little Melissa since she was a baby when her mother, an immigrant prostitute, thought it best to leave the girl behind while seeking fortune in America. Her unexpected appearance five years later has traumatic consequences when she takes her child away from Thanasis and leaves. Thanasis, suddenly alone, misses the child who was like a daughter to him and a comfort in his old age. Thanasis decides to travel to America in the hope of seeing her again. He does not have a visa. He does not speak English. He does not have much money. He does not know how to drive a car, and he has never been on an airplane. But he does have a distant cousin, Plato, a professional gambler, living in Las Vegas, who has offered to help him cross the border. Thanasis never suspects that Plato might have a scheme of his own. A road movie begins as the two disparate cousins from Greece embark on a cross- country adventure to win the smile of a little girl..." The cast includes Yiorgo Yoyagis, a famous actor in Greece, who plays the lead character "Thanasis." As a young man, Yoyagis played a defining role in the classic movie Zorba the Greek (he was the young man who committed suicide in the film leading his father to take revenge on the attractive widow character played by Irene Papas). Other actors in Without Borders include Academy Award nominee Seymour Cassel.
